

I enjoy not having my phone ringing since I signed up for no calling in Indiana. Please do not allow the banking group to call former customers. There is a reason these people are "former" customers, they don't want to do business with that company anymore. If they want to talk with a specific bank, then the customer will call them.